BRIEF MENTIONINGS.

Events in and About the City Given in a Nutshell.

The council committee on ordinances has been called to meet this evening to elect a chairman in place of ex-Councilman William McCormick, who resigned recently.

Last night at the North Wheeling hospital, after a protracted illness, occurred the death of Mrs. Louisa Rowan, wife of J. H. Rowan, whose friends extended condolence in this hour of trial.

Great preparations have been made for the picnic which is to be given at Pleasant Valley park by the members of St. Mary's Catholic church of Benwood to-day. There will be dancing and various athletic contests, and a large crowd is expected to be in attendance.

The Fulton fire department will give a picnic at Wheeling park next Saturday. Besides dancing and other amusements, there will be a match race between Charles S. Fredrickburg and Joseph M. Fulton for $50 a side. Much interest is being manifested in this race.

Requisition papers for Frank Morton are expected to reach Wheeling on Tuesday, when he will be taken back to Fort Wayne, Ind., by Detective

George Colling, of the Indiana city, who is now here awaiting their arrival. An attempt was made Saturday to secure

Morton's release, but it failed.

On Saturday, before United States

Commissioner Boyd, the preliminary hearing of William Montgomery and Joseph Shepperd, charged with the raising bills to higher denominations, was held, and resulted in their being held for the United States grand jury. They gave bond and were released.

Yesterday morning occurred the death of ex-Police Officer Seeley Marks, after a sickness of about four years. The deceased served on the police force under

Chief McNeel, and was an efficient officer. The funeral will be in charge of Black Prince Lodge No. 19, Knights of Pythias, of which deceased was a member.

During Thursday afternoon's storm the large and well stocked barn owned by Burt Brown, on the Cadiz pike, three miles back of Bridgeport, was struck by lightning and burned to the ground, involving a loss of $2,000, nearly if not quite covered by insurance. The horses, with some difficulty, were rescued.

Last night at the Fourth street M. E.

church the choir, under the direction of Organist James Perry, gave a musical service that was thoroughly enjoyed by a large congregation. Solos by Miss Metzner and Mrs. Jesse Morris, with violin obligato by Prof. La Roche, and a duet by Mr. Will Day and Mrs. Morris, were enjoyable numbers on the program.

THE STATE COMMITTEE MEETS TO-DAY.

Although James K. Hall Announces He is Not a Candidate, His Friends Intend to

PUSH THE OHIO COUNTY MAN

For the Chairmanship, and Claim a Majority of the Committee Pledged to His Support.

Although James K. Hall has stated that he is not a candidate for the chairmanship of the Republican state committee, his friends state that they intend to present his name for this high honor at the meeting of the committee in Parkersburg to-day, and they are confident that they will poll a majority of the fourteen members. The committee is made up of one member from each of the thirteen senatorial districts, and one member-at-large, Hon. C. H. Payne, the colored leader, who was given this honor by the state convention at the instance of Col. E. H. Fitch, of Huntington. The other members are the following:

First—H. C. Richards.

Second—Dr. J. W. McDonald.

Third—C. E. Haddock.

Fourth—C. D. Elliott.

Fifth—H. C. Woodyard.

Sixth—Elliott Northcott.

Seventh—J. D. Hewitt.

Eighth—Samuel Dixon.

Ninth—W. M. O. Dawson.

Tenth—Dr. George O. Brown.

Eleventh—W. E. Glasscock.

Twelfth—A. C. Scherr.

Thirteenth—E. C. Henshaw.

This morning, several Pan Handle

Republicans will go to Parkersburg to take in the meeting, including Sheriff

Richards, the first district member of the committee, and Dr. McDonald, of Benwood, the member for the Second district.

They Want Hall.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., July 22.—

Local Republicans, a majority of whom favor James K. Hall for the chairmanship of the Republican state executive committee, are
